

Beware of Pirated Textbooks

Buy only original NCERT textbooks, not the fake ones.

Before buying any NCERT textbook, make sure it carries the watermark of the NCERT logo shown below, on many pages in it.

Check any eight consecutive pages, you will find watermark on at least two pages. If there is no watermark found, it means your book could be a pirated one.

No bookseller is allowed to sell any NCERT textbook beyond the actual price printed in it. Avoid buying a re-stitched/re-bound book at an extra cost. You have right to demand NCERT textbook in its original form, without any extra binding, at the price printed in it. Else, send complaint to us.

Selling or Buying Pirated Books is a Crime

HELP STOP PIRACY

Complaint about any fake/pirated NCERT textbooks or overcharging should be e-mailed to vigleg.ncert@gmail.com
